Dear

I refer to your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 for information regarding a number of schemes being funded through the Private Finance Initiative (PFI). The Highways Agency will be replying separately on the schemes that fall to them. This reply covers the Doncaster Interchange project.

As you will be aware, the Doncaster Interchange is a local major scheme which was granted approval by the Department. The scheme was funded through a mixture of PFI and European Regional Development Fund (ERDF) grant. I am writing to advise you that following a search of our paper and electronic records, I have established that the information you requested cannot be located and, therefore, I can neither confirm nor deny whether any information is held. However, you may wish to contact the South Yorkshire Passenger Transport Executive (SYLTE), the promoters of the interchange scheme, if you have not already done so, as they may hold some of the information you require.

If you are unhappy with the way the Department has handled your request or with the decisions made in relation to your request you may complain within two calendar months of the date of this letter by writing to the Department's Information Rights Unit at:

If you have any queries about this letter, please contact me. Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely

Your right to complain to [DfT/Agency] and the Information Commissioner

You have the right to complain within two calendar months of the date of this letter about the way in which your request for information was handled and/or about the decision not to disclose all or part of the information requested. In addition a complaint can be made that DfT has not complied with its FOI publication scheme.

Your complaint will be acknowledged and you will be advised of a target date by which to expect a response. Initially your complaint will be re-considered by the official who dealt with your request for information. If, after careful consideration, that official decides that his/her decision was correct, your complaint will automatically be referred to a senior independent official who will conduct a further review. You will be advised of the outcome of your complaint and if a decision is taken to disclose information originally withheld this will be done as soon as possible.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
