3) Explanation of missed deadlines

In June 2011, BIS missed the following deadlines:

Deadline missed	Reason
5.2 Review options to monetise the Student Loan Book	As set out in the HE White Paper the department is continuing to explore options to monetise the student loan book including retaining the loans on the Government's books, selling them outright to financial investors, or selling loans to one or more regulated private-sector companies and expects to set out further detail later in the summer.
9.3(i) Undertake a consultation and joint review with HM Treasury of consumer credit and personal insolvency in the UK, including reviewing regulators' powers to define and ban excessive interest rates on credit and store cards, and a seven-day cooling-off period for store cards	The Call for Evidence for the review closed in December. It covered a number of complex and inter-linking issues and the Government received a large number of detailed and considered responses. The Government is considering carefully its options with respect to the issues covered by the review. We are mindful of the need to avoid unintended consequences and to deliver the best outcome for consumers. The Government will provide an update later this summer.
9.3(ii) Develop measures to end unfair bank and financial transaction charges for consumers	This action on bank charges is one of the issues that is addressed in the review of consumer credit and personal insolvency (9.3i above). The Government will provide an update later this summer.

The status of missed deadlines from previous reports is:

Deadline missed	Status	Comments
4.3(ii) Proposals published on the introduction of loans for further education students (due to complete Mar 2011)	Not complete	We can confirm that the decision has been taken to publish the consultation on FE fee loans following the publication of HE White Paper (28 June). Exact publication date to be confirmed.
5.1(ii) Develop a White Paper on the future strategy for higher education to encourage greater choice for students, high quality teaching, a fair deal for part-time students, and wider participation for students from disadvantaged	Completed	Published 28 June backgrounds (due to complete Mar 2011)

8.1(viii) Issue guidance to Departments on the operation of the moratorium to new domestic regulation for start-ups and micro-businesses with fewer than ten employees	Not complete	The Micro-exemption policy has been in place since 1 st April 2011. Departments are making good progress implementing the policy and we are supporting them in this. Discussions are continuing on a small number of particular circumstances where further clarification on how to apply the policy is required. When concluded these will be reflected in the guidance.
8.7(vi) Invite the Low Pay Commission to consider the best way to give business clarity on future levels of the national minimum wage	Complete	The LPC remit has now been agreed and includes this work.
