(3) Explanation of missed deadlines

In August 2011, BIS missed the following deadlines:

Deadline missed	Reason
1.5(ii) Run procurement process to identify preferred supplier of the Manufacturing Advisory Service(MAS)	Procurement process is underway and has been running though August, with invitations to tender issued in July. To allow sufficient time for responses; evaluation of bids; and identification of the preferred supplier, completion of the procurement process has been extended until end September 2011. However the overall project is on time to deliver new MAS service by January 2012.
4.3(iii) Consult on proposals and develop an implementation plan so that (FE) loans are introduced in time for the academic year 2013/14	The consultation was published on 15 August 2011 and closes on 21 October 2011. Part of the “New Challenges, New Chances for Adult Learning” consultation setting out proposals to promote high quality teaching and learning for adults and strengthen the skills system. (Linked to 4.3ii)
6.2(iv) Agree implementation plan for a joined-up company registration service ("one click")	The aims of the implementation plan have been agreed but to enable a workshop to be held to decide details of delivery, completion is now expected at the end of September.
8.2(ii) Consult on White Paper (on reforms to the front line delivery of regulation)	Consultation began in May 2011, with formal consultation published in June 2011. To ensure stakeholders have full time to respond, the end of the formal consultation has been extended until 16th September.

The status of missed deadlines from previous reports is:

Deadline missed	Status	Comments
4.3(ii) Proposals published on the introduction of loans for further education students (due to complete Mar 2011)	Complete	Consultation now published 15 August 2011 and closes on 21 October 2011. Part of the “New Challenges, New Chances for Adult Learning” consultation setting out proposals to promote high quality teaching and learning for adults and strengthen the skills system.
5.2 Review options to monetise the Student Loan Book	Complete	Rothschild review of options has been completed. Government is assessing the implementation aspects of the recommendations.
8.9(x) Consult on materially simplified narrative reporting for quoted companies	Not started (due to be completed Nov 2011)	Ministers have decided to delay publication of the consultation (from July) until September to better align it with related work on greenhouse gas emissions and on executive pay. This will offer a clearer structure and timeline for business and other respondees.
9.3(i) Undertake a consultation and joint review with HM Treasury of consumer credit and personal insolvency in the UK, including reviewing regulators’ powers to define and ban excessive interest rates on credit and store cards, and a seven-day cooling-off period for store cards	Not complete	On 19 July, the Government published a summary of the responses to the review on consumer credit and personal insolvency issues. The summary sets out next steps on personal insolvency issues. The Government is continuing to consider the way forward on the credit issues covered by the review. These include the three coalition commitments included in the Review: unfair bank charges (see 9.3.ii below), regulators' powers to define and ban excessive interest rates on credit and store cards and a seven-day cooling-off period for store cards. The Government will publish a firm indication of next steps in these areas in the autumn.
9.3(ii) Develop measures to end unfair bank and financial transaction charges for consumers	Not complete	Ministers are currently considering options to meet the Coalition commitment to end unfair bank charges in light of the responses received to the call for evidence to the Consumer Credit and Personal Insolvency Review (see 9.3.i above). All options remain on the table and a firm indication of next steps will be set out in the autumn.
9.3(iii) Announce proposed package of measures on which voluntary agreement with banks will be sought	Not complete	This is an action milestone following on from 9.3ii – please see above for details.

(4) External delays

The following action was delayed for reasons outside of the Department’s control:

Deadline missed	Reason
6.1(viii) First investment of banks’ business growth fund in SMEs seeking capital to grow	Fund is bank-led (not Government control). Running since May 2011 with two regional offices – one more due to open September 2011. Due diligence underway in several possible investments: aim to make first investment in autumn 2011. The first quarterly HMG liaison meeting was held in July.
