LOCAL AREA

Bovington and Lulworth lie in a rural area with limited public transport, having a car is fairly essential. The nearest village is Wool, 2 miles from Bovington, 3 ½ from Lulworth. The train station in Wool is a vital link for travel to Wareham, Poole, Dorchester, and Weymouth & Bournemouth. At Bovington, your basic requirements can be met by the Mace shop. There are shops in Wool and a high street in Wareham (7 miles) with main branch banks, a small supermarket, cinema and sports centre. Dorchester (11 miles) has more shops and major supermarkets but for larger shopping centres and high street stores, you will need to travel to Poole (16 miles).

Bovington and Lulworth are surrounded by countryside as well as being only 14 miles to the seaside resort of Weymouth to the west. Tourist attractions such as Monkey World, The Tank Museum, Cloudhill Cottage (home of Lawrence of Arabia) lie on the doorstep of Bovington Camp. Lulworth Cove, Durdle Door and Jurassic coastline are only 4 miles from Bovington.

The Tourist website for this area is www.visitdorset.com
