

CHAPTER 1 - DEFINITION OF SERVICE CATERING

DEFINITION OF SERVICE CATERING

0101. The aim of this volume is to provide the policy regarding Operational (Non-PAYD) Unit catering for the three Services who are responsible for feeding all those personnel who, regardless of location or circumstance, have an entitlement to be fed. Units are also responsible for ensuring that expenditure on food is strictly controlled within allocated financial limits. Units are therefore to regulate consumption and keep accounts in order to maintain an acceptable balance between income and expenditure.

0102. Service Catering also encompasses Reserve Forces, Service Schools and Service Cadets to whom these instructions equally apply.

0103. - 0199. Reserved.
