- (vii) Where applicable the dates at which each report, publication, document or information was superseded or cancelled or considered obsolete and details of what it was replaced by (if applicable).

Your request has been considered under the Environmental Information Regulations 2004.

I am writing to confirm that the Department has now completed its search for the information.

There are three websites used by the Department and HS2 Ltd to publish information about the HS2 project. They are:

1. <http://www.dft.gov.uk/>
2. <http://www.hs2.org.uk/>
3. <http://highspeedrail.dft.gov.uk/>

In respect of website 1 above I attach a spreadsheet 'dft-hs2-all-content.xls' containing a list of all pages relating to the HS2 project currently live on <http://www.dft.gov.uk/> (generated on 8 May 2012), and a list of all pages relating to the HS2 project that were on <http://www.dft.gov.uk/> at 20 April 2010 (prior to the change of Government), which have now been archived.

This spreadsheet contains the information you have requested at parts (i), (ii), (iv) and (v) of your request, insofar as it is available.

For part (iii) of your request, the author of each piece of information is clearly stated within that information, or, where it is not, the author is the Department for Transport.

For part (vi) of your request, the Department does not hold a record of this information. However the details of press releases, speeches and statements issued by the current Government are included in the spreadsheet.

For part (vii) of your request, the Department does not hold a record of this information. From time to time new information may be published which is an update to or replaces previously published information, but any information we have previously published remains available and forms an important record of the development of Government policy, whether the current or previous Government.

In respect of websites 2 and 3 above, these websites are maintained by HS2 Ltd and a schedule of their contents is not held by the Department. For the purposes of information requests, HS2 Ltd (the company set up by Government to develop the HS2 scheme) is considered as a separate public authority. You can make requests of HS2 Ltd by emailing HS2enquiries@hs2.gsi.gov.uk.

In keeping with the spirit and effect of the Environmental Information Regulations 2004, all information is assumed to be releasable to the public unless exempt. The Department will, therefore, be simultaneously releasing to the public the information you requested, together with any related information that will provide a key to its wider context.

If you are unhappy with the way the Department has handled your request or with the decisions made in relation to your request you may complain within two calendar months of the date of this letter by writing to the Department's Information Rights Unit at:

Zone D/01

E-mail: FOI-Advice-Team-DFT@dft.gsi.gov.uk

Please see attached details of DfT's complaints procedure and your right to complain to the Information Commissioner.

Yours faithfully,

XXXXXXXXXXXXX

Your right to complain to DfT and the Information Commissioner

You have the right to complain within two calendar months of the date of this letter about the way in which your request for information was handled and/or about the decision not to disclose all or part of the information requested. You will be advised of the outcome of your complaint and if a decision is taken to disclose information originally withheld this will be done as soon as possible.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
