Freedom of Information Request: Ref F0007650

Dear XXXX,

I am responding to your request of 11 May in regard to the estimated net administration savings to 2014-15 from DfT non-departmental public bodies (NDPBs). You requested a detailed breakdown by NDPB to show how the estimated DfT total used by the Cabinet Office was arrived at. This is set out in the table below. It should be borne in mind that these figures are estimates and as such are likely to be subject to revision over time.

Table of Estimated Cumulative Net Admin Savings from DfT NDPBs

Public Body	Estimate of Cumulative Net Admin Savings
BRB (Residuary) Ltd (BRBR)	£4.35m
The Commission for Integrated Transport (CfIT) ¹	£3.94m
Cycling England ¹	£1.63m
The Disabled Persons' Transport Advisory Committee (DPTAC)	£0.42m
Passenger Focus	£10.48m
The Railway Heritage Committee (RHC)	£0.17m
The Renewable Fuels Agency (RFA) ¹	£0.57m
Total	£21.56m²

In keeping with the spirit and effect of the Freedom of Information Act, all information is assumed to be releasable to the public unless exempt. A copy of this response and the information provided may now be published on our website together with any related information that will provide a key to its wider context.

¹ CfIT was abolished on 14 October 2010. Cycling England and the RFA were abolished on 31 March 2011, and the functions of the RFA were brought into the Department for Transport on 1 April 2011.

² The individual NDPB figures have been rounded down, so the total (£21.56m) is slightly less than the Cabinet Office figure you quoted (£21.59m).

If you are unhappy with the way the Department has handled your request or with the decisions made in relation to your request you may complain within two calendar months of the date of this letter by writing to the Department's Information Rights Unit at:

Zone D/04

Your right to complain to Department for Transport and the Information Commissioner

You have the right to complain within two calendar months of the date of this letter about the way in which your request for information was handled and/or about the decision not to disclose all or part of the information requested. In addition a complaint can be made that DfT has not complied with its FOI publication scheme.

Your complaint will be acknowledged and you will be advised of a target date by which to expect a response. Initially your complaint will be re-considered by the official who dealt with your request for information. If, after careful consideration, that official decides that his/her decision was correct, your complaint will automatically be referred to a senior independent official who will conduct a further review. You will be advised of the outcome of your complaint and if a decision is taken to disclose information originally withheld this will be done as soon as possible.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
