LOCAL AREA

Tidworth is situated on Salisbury Plain in Wiltshire and forms part of the Salisbury Plain Super Garrison. Perham Down is situated a mile outside of Tidworth.

Both are rural locations but easily accessed from the A303, the main arterial route from London, and the M3 to the West Country.

Tidworth itself is a small town with a high street and two supermarkets both centrally located. Andover and the historic city of Salisbury are the nearest large towns with Andover being approx 8 miles away and Salisbury approximately 15 miles away. Perham Down has a day nursery and is within walking distance from Tidworth.

Basingstoke and Southampton are approx 45 minutes and an hour away respectively and offer more extensive shopping. Close by are the World Heritage sites of Stonehenge and Woodhenge, other destinations nearby include the New Forest, Beaulieu Motor Museum, Longleat Safari Park, Paulton's Park and various National Trust Properties. The nearest beaches are about an hour away.

Tidworth has its own leisure centre which offers a wide range of sporting activities with a swimming pool and flumes, squash courts, tennis courts and gyms in addition to the many activities run for all ages. The leisure centre also houses a cafe, the library, Caterpillars Day Care, youth club, hairdressers, beauty salon and the HIVE

TRAVEL

By car:

To gain entry to the camp, please report to the guardroom (Tel: 01980 602577) at the main entrance VCP2, which is signposted.

Approaching from the A303

- Leave the A303 at exit signposted Tidworth, Cholderton, Marlborough, Hungerford
- Take the first exit off the next roundabout onto the A338 towards Tidworth, Hungerford & Shipton Bellinger
- Continue to follow the A338 through Shipton Bellinger into Tidworth
- At the first traffic light turn left and left again at the next T-Junction
- The Main Entrance (VCP2) is signposted to the right.

By train:

The nearest manned train station with a taxi rank is in Andover (8 miles), Grateley station is closer, approx 5 miles away, but is unmanned and there is no taxi rank. Salisbury station is another option. These stations are all on the direct line from London Waterloo.
