Dear XXXXXXXXXXXXXX

Application under the Freedom of Information (FOI) Act 2000

I am writing in response to your request for information received on 25 November 2010 made under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 asking for details as follows:

Please could you supply a list of the external consultants used by the Department for Transport in the last 12 months, how much each was paid and what duties they performed?

DfT consists of a central HQ organisation (DfT(c)) and seven Executive Agencies as follows:

Highways Agency
Driver and Vehicle Licensing Agency
Driving Standards Agency
Maritime and Coastguard Agency
Vehicle and Operator Services Agency
Vehicle Certification Agency
Government Car and Despatch Agency

This response covers the whole Department.

Annex A to this letter shows a list of suppliers and how much they were paid. The information has been adapted from the Department of Transport's data submitted under the Professional Services Consultancy category in the Public Sector Procurement Expenditure Survey for financial year 2009/10. We are currently in the process of collecting information similar to that shown in Annex A for the period April to September 2010. This will not be available until the end of February 2011 at the earliest. You may like to submit a further request after that date if you would still like the information.

However, as part of government's transparency agenda, DfT is required to publish on its website details of all new consultancy assignments, of £20k or above, approved since 24 May 2010, which meet the definition of consultancy below. The link to this information is as follows: Exceptions to the moratorium on discretionary spend

The following definition of consultancy has been developed as part of government's Consultancy Value Programme:

Consultancy services cover the provision to management of objective advice and assistance relating to strategy, structure, management or operations of an organisation in pursuit of its purposes and objectives. Such assistance will be provided outside the 'business-as-usual' environment when in-house skills are not available and will be immaterial and time-limited. Services may include the identification of options with recommendations, or assistance with (but not the delivery of) the implementation of solutions. The sub-categories of consultancy are; strategy, finance, legal, HR & Training, organisation & change management, marketing & communications, PPM, technical, IT/IS, property and procurement.

Annex A shows the sub-categories included in the paragraph above where they are available. However, further details of the duties the consultants performed are not held centrally and we have estimated that the cost of complying with your request would exceed £600 as there are too many areas of the department with which we would need to consult. Section 12 of the Act (the full text of which is attached) does not oblige the Department to comply with requests that exceed this limit, and we are therefore refusing that part of your request.

The information provided may be published on our website. If you are unhappy with the way the Department has handled your request or with the decisions made in relation to your request you may complain within two calendar months of the date of this letter by writing to the Department's Information Rights Unit at:

Zone D/04
Ashdown House
Sedlescombe Road North
Hastings
East Sussex TN37 7GA
E-mail: FOI-Advice-Team-DFT@dft.gsi.gov.uk

Please see attached details of DfT's complaints procedure and your right to complain to the Information Commissioner.

If you have any queries about this response, please contact XXXXXXXXXXXXX in our press office. Please remember to quote the reference number F0007129 in any future communications.

Yours sincerely,

XXXXXXXXXXXXX

Section 12 exemption:

Exemption where cost of compliance exceeds appropriate limit

- (1) Section 1(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not exempt the public authority from its obligation to comply with paragraph (a) of section 1(1) unless the estimated cost of complying with that paragraph alone would exceed the appropriate limit.
- (3) In subsections (1) and (2) "the appropriate limit" means such amount as may be prescribed, and different amounts may be prescribed in relation to different cases.
- (4) The Secretary of State may by regulations provide that, in such circumstances as may be prescribed, where two or more requests for information are made to a public authority—
- (a) by one person, or
- (b) by different persons who appear to the public authority to be acting in concert or in pursuance of a campaign, the estimated cost of complying with any of the requests is to be taken to be the estimated total cost of complying with all of them.

(5) The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision for the purposes of this section as to the costs to be estimated and as to the manner in which they are to be estimated.

Your right to complain to DfT and the Information Commissioner

You have the right to complain within two calendar months of the date of this letter about the way in which your request for information was handled and/or about the decision not to disclose all or part of the information requested. In addition a complaint can be made that DfT has not complied with its FOI publication scheme.

Your complaint will be acknowledged and you will be advised of a target date by which to expect a response. Initially your complaint will be re-considered by the official who dealt with your request for information. If, after careful consideration, that official decides that his/her decision was correct, your complaint will automatically be referred to a senior independent official who will conduct a further review. You will be advised of the outcome of your complaint and if a decision is taken to disclose information originally withheld this will be done as soon as possible.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
