Appendix B: West Midlands

Revocation of saved structure plan policies

County level structure plans were abolished under the Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act 2004, but the policies in them remained in force for a transitional period. In 2007 the Government wrote to local planning authorities to advise them which policies from their existing structure plans would be saved after 27 September 2007. This Appendix lists the 215 saved structure plan policies for the West Midlands together with an assessment of whether the policies are still relevant or whether they have been superseded.

Staffordshire and Stoke-on-Trent Structure Plan 1996-2011

Proposals in the Structure Plan covered the period to 2011, and have been implemented through the Local Plans produced by the nine authorities in the County (because a 5 year housing land supply to 2011 will already be in place).

Policies relating to Newcastle under Lyme and Stoke-on-Trent have been superseded by their joint core spatial strategy (adopted in 2009). Similarly, the policies have been superseded in South Staffordshire, which adopted it core strategy in May 2011. In relation to minerals and waste policies (MW1-9), these will be soon superseded by the Joint Waste Core Strategy for Staffordshire and the City of Stoke-on-Trent, which is at an advanced stage in its preparation.

No other policy listed will have been superseded by development plan documents across the remaining local authorities which are still in the process of producing their local development frameworks. Some core strategies have been completed or are close to examination but there is no prospect of there being county-wide coverage for some time.
